

The mission of the Bora Laskin Law Library is to partner proactively with the University of Toronto Faculty of Law in pursuing excellence in education, advancing outstanding legal scholarship and fostering awareness of social justice.

To that end, we provide comprehensive access to legal information relevant to the research, instructional and service endeavors of the Faculty of Law, through a synthesis of innovative services, integrated collections, effective instruction, creative use of technology and dynamic participation in the Faculty community.